

Medical Prescription Reference Document

Medication Overview:

1. Dalo (1 Morning, 1 Dinner for 10 days):

- Dosage Instructions: Administer 1 tablet during the morning and 1 tablet during dinner.
- Special Instructions: Do not crush or chew tablets. Report any adverse reactions promptly.

2. Anvil (1 Lunch for 5 days):

- Prescribed for: [Indication/Condition]
- Dosage Instructions: Take 1 tablet during the lunchtime.
- Special Instructions: Inform about any history of gastric issues. Avoid alcohol during the medication period.

3. Citrizine (1 Morning, 1 Lunch for 2 days):

- Dosage Instructions: Consume 1 tablet in the morning and 1 tablet during lunch.
- Special Instructions: May cause drowsiness; refrain from operating machinery. Seek medical attention for severe symptoms.

Additional Guidance:

- Medications are tailored to the patient's specific health needs; modifications should be made only under professional consultation.
- Missed doses should be taken as soon as remembered; skip if it's almost time for the next dose.
- Scheduled follow-up appointments are crucial for a comprehensive health assessment.
- Immediate reporting of any health changes, new symptoms, or concerns is encouraged.

Disclaimer: This document is intended for reference by healthcare professionals and should not replace direct consultation. For any queries or modifications to the prescribed medications, please contact the prescribing physician directly.